Cannes, 16th of October, 2015. The winners of the 6th Cannes Corporate Media & TV Awards, one of the world's most important festivals in the corporate audiovisual industry, were revealed on Thursday, 15th of October at Palm Beach Cannes during an exquisite Awards Gala Dinner. More than 270 guests travelled from all over the world to take part in the festivities.

The international competition received a number of 772 submissions representing 40 countries, some as far-reaching as Australia, Brazil, Canada, Hong Kong, Japan, Qatar, Russia, Singapore, Taiwan, Thailand, United Arab Emirates and USA. A total of 152 productions were awarded with the coveted Dolphin Trophies in Gold, Silver and Black. The winners can be found on the festival's webpage.

The Grand Prix was awarded to "The Heartbeat of Switzerland"

The film production company Lichtspiele 'The Film Agency' was awarded with the Grand Prix for the image film "The Heartbeat of Switzerland" for the client Swiss Federal Railways. Next to the Grand Prix, the White Dolphin, the film was also awarded with a Gold Dolphin, a Silver Dolphin and two Black Dolphins for Best Director and Best Camera. Therewith Lichtspiele 'The Film Agency' could also snatch the Blue Dolphin for the best production company of the year, an award that has been given away for the first time. The jury was impressed and deemed that the victorious image film is one of the films that attract you immediately. "Production-wise it is done exemplary and the whole concept worked: it has a good story, is well written, has a good soundtrack and an emotional overtone", said jury president Peter Beck.
